

COMMONWEALTH of LEARNING

Commonwealth Educational
Media Centre for Asia

November 27, 2012

With Best Compliments from R. Thyagarajan, Head, Administration & Finance

The following may please be published in your newspaper

The Commonwealth Educational Media Centre for Asia to provide 10 scholarships to women faculty members who desires to pursue online “Post Graduate Diploma in eLearning (PGDEL)” of Indira Gandhi National Open University (IGNOU), New Delhi.

In order to encourage use of online learning in Indian educational institutions, and promote use of eLearning by faculty members, CEMCA proposes to provide 10 scholarships to women faculty members who desires to pursue the online Post Graduate Diploma in eLearning (PGDEL), offered by Staff Training and Research Institute of Distance Education (STRIDE) of IGNOU.

The Scholarship will be in the form of reimbursement of full programme fee. Women teachers/academics from open universities, Higher Education Institutions, NCERT/NIOS/CBSE and other similar organisation are eligible for consideration, and are encouraged to apply.

For more Information please contact

CEMCA by email to:

admin@cemca.org

smishra@col.org

rthyagarajan@col.org

About Commonwealth Educational Media Centre for Asia

The Commonwealth of Learning (COL), Vancouver, Canada established Commonwealth Educational Media Centre for Asia (CEMCA) in 1994 as an international agency to promote the meaningful, relevant and appropriate use of ICTs to serve the educational and training needs of Commonwealth member states of Asia. COL is an inter-governmental organization established by the Commonwealth Governments in September 1987. The Government of India notified CEMCA as a diplomatic mission under section 3 of the United Nations (privileges and immunities) Act, 1947 (46 of 1947) vide The Gazette of India, Extraordinary, Part II, Section 3, Sub-section (ii) dated 10 February 2000. CEMCA works in eight Commonwealth countries in Asia.